A Dedication to the

After Principal Dinsmore Wood transferred from our ship to accept a position elsewhere, our Board of Strategy was confronted with the problem of replacing him. This Board found that the man best qualified to take over the helm of the U.S.S. Edwardsville was George F. Brock, our new Skipper. During the year that he has been here, Captain Brock has proved what a wise choice the Board made. He has endeared himself to the crew through his friendly attitude and his willingness to discuss their problems with them at any time.

For these reasons

Board of Strategy

Every ship must have its board of strategy and no exception to this rule is the U.S.S. Edwardsville, which was launched by the crew in September. In order to keep the ship running smoothly, the crew is under the supervision of a very competent group. This group of officers is known as the Board of Education.

The board members are as follows: Mr. E. J. Ballweg, Mr. L. Brockmeier, Dr. W. B. Cox, Mr. R. C. Cunningham, Mr. C. Fruit, Mr. H. Hanser, Mr. G. Little. Mr. Little is the president of the board.

The board of strategy does their best to see that the ship has a set course and a well-rounded program so that they can bring honor and glory to the ship, U.S.S. Edwardsville.

CHIEF OF STAFF.....SUPERINTENDENT

A ship without a chief of staff can navigate about as well as one without a rudder, but by observing the steady course of affairs on our ship, it can be seen that all the affairs have been well co-ordinated by our chief of staff, Mr. Alexander. Although Mr. Alexander has the whole Edwardsville fleet, comprising four ships, to supervise, he is never too busy to talk and laugh with everyone.

WATCH OFFICER.....FEMALE (DEAN OF GIRLS)

To keep check on the ship's female contingent is the duty of Miss Sloan, one of the watch officers of the U.S.S. Edwardsville (Dean of Girls to those uninitiated in Navy parlance). She sees that the "Waves" of the crew are always aboard ship during maneuvers and sees that they are comfortable and happy, or if anyone has a problem, she is always ready to help her solve it. Miss Sloan teaches English and is in charge of the Senior Hi-Tri.

WATCH OFFICER.....MALE (DEAN OF BOYS)

Mr. Lewis is the watch officer for all the men of the U.S.S. Edwardsville and is in vice-command of the ship. Although watching over our male crew would seem enough of a job in itself, Mr. Lewis not only does this well but also finds time to teach American History and sponsor the Hi-Y. He is one of the officers in charge of our log-book, the Tiger, and is also Assistant Principal.

There comes a time in the career of every high school student when he realizes for the first time that his days at the "Institution of Higher Learning" are numbered, and that he is about to leave behind all the carefree days that have become so much a part of his life. It is this realization that has come suddenly upon the class of 1947.

For four short years—too short—we had waited impatiently for the day that we could leave EHS and take our places in the world. We dreamed and played away the years, until we suddenly became aware that graduation time had come; that no longer could we enjoy the lax rules that govern youth. For the first time we understood what a sad experience graduation could be.

We looked back and wished that we could re-live every experience in those years; that we could enjoy our stay at EHS once more before leaving. Every passing day made us more aware that we would soon be gone and that the class of '47, like all the classes before us and yet to come, would be only a memory in the corridors and classrooms of Edwardsville High.

So ends an experience that will long be treasured in the hearts of the people who made it a pleasant one. From a class whose record stands as the very ultimate of success in high school, we bid "Good-bye and the best of luck to the faculty, students, and school."

Juniors

We, the class of '48, boarded the "schoolner" ship of EHS in September, 1944, and, although we were the same as lowly cabin boys, soon learned just what a great voyage was ahead of us. Mostly that year we were just seen and not heard.

By our second year on board, we had advanced to the rank of midshipmen and had begun to come out of our shell cover. It was this year, the second of our career, we started making ourselves heard and felt, as well as seen. We had representatives in all clubs and fields.

Our shipmates and fellow-voyagers realized that we, now Petty Officers, are invaluable to them in the varied fields—sports, music, scholarship, and leadership.

By the time that we have completed our fourth successful year on this ship everyone will realize that the class of 1948 is the outstanding class of all those which have ever entered EHS.

Sophomores

In the month of September, in the year 1945, a class of shy "Freshies" entered the portals of EHS. It took us a little while to get adjusted to the scornful glances of the Seniors and the daily rush of this great school. When the year ended, we had made quite an impression on our teachers and fellow-students.

As Sophomores, we have outgrown the shyness of our first year. The upper classmen still look down on us, but not with scorn. They look with admiration and behold beauty, intelligence, and splendid achievements. We finished in second place in the Freshman-Sophomore basketball tournament this year. This would indicate that our athletes will take a major part in the activities of the next two years. Of course we all know that our class will be the most outstanding ever to graduate from EHS.

As a final word from the "Forty-niners," let us say to all future Freshmen, "Do not let the scorn of the upper classmen bother you; just remember, they too were Freshmen. Let the trials and experiences of the class of 1949 be your guide."

Freshmen

Apprentice Seamen

Well, here we are! The Freshman Class of 1946. The upperclassmen have kidded, teased, and laughed at us. The floor is now ours and we have the chance to defend ourselves. Actually we have some good points too.

When we entered on Freshman Day, September 5, 1946, we thought that EHS was all peaches and cream. This thought, however, changed during the following weeks. Assignments were getting harder and the upper classmen weren't a very big help in most cases. We really tried hard not to fall for the elevator and fourth floor classrooms and other gags the upperclassmen tried on us. After all, we are human beings!

We are now adjusted in EHS and have taken our place to show some very good achievements. If you look at the activities that EHS offers, you will find the Freshmen high on the lists of most of them.

We hope that the "half-century" class of 1950 will stand in the admiring eyes of the Freshmen then as the Senior Class of 1947 shines in our eyes. We hope to turn out some "whiz" teams to fill the shoes of the present and past Tiger teams EHS has shone forth with.

With the help of the teachers, and even the upperclassmen, we have nearly struggled through the Freshman year. Believe us, please. It has been fun, and the following three years, we hope, will be the same. We will be back next year as second year men—Sophomores.

Tiger Staff

From the first of September to the last of April, those long-faced people with intent countenances whom you have seen scurrying through the decks of the U.S.S. Edwardsville have been merely the keepers of the log, the Tiger Staff. Events aboard ship and the respective deadlines of the engraver, printer, and binder left little time for dawdling.

On any typical day of the school year, members of all staffs could be seen working: the editorial staff pasting pictures, editing copy, or planning pages, the business staff selling or advertising Tigers, and the sponsors hovering about, trying to coordinate all activities and making sure that the annuals are out on time and in good order.

The staff has tried, through individual pictures of all the classes, more snapshot pages, novel introductory pages, and other means which are very much in evidence, to present a yearbook of which not only the Class of '47 but all the classes in the school could be justly proud.

Shore Leave

Aboard ship, the crew can find all shapes, sizes, and descriptions of activities to take up all its spare time. Each year more clubs have been added to the ship's roster until at present twenty-three different ones can be found. Some of these are (in their order on the preceding pages) :

The Spanish Club, the largest of the language clubs, is open to all those who have studied or are studying Spanish, providing an informal approach to Spanish through its actual use. Officers of this club are J. Paddock, R. Nordstrom, and M. Ranek.

All Latin students are eligible for membership in the Latin Club. Meetings usually include talks on various myths and legends of Roman literature, songs, and games. Officers are D. Gunter, C. Fellenstein, R. Senn, and N. Whittenberg.

Le Cercle Francaise is composed of all members of the French class and meetings are held during class time. All business is carried on in French. Its officers are J. Gerard, D. Gray, and G. Gerling.

The Science Club, which is sponsored by Miss Hunter, offers opportunity for scientific work beyond the classroom. This year the club sponsored a lyceum and a project contest in the spring. Officers are D. Gunter, C. Eberhardt, M. Buch, and M. Mateyka.

The Future Homemakers of America was organized in 1942 and is an organization for all girls who are studying Home Economics. The purpose of the club is to increase students' knowledge of Home Economics and serves as a help to girls who desire to select a vocation in this field. A. Michel is president; L. Perry, vice president; L. Arth, secretary; and B. Beck, treasurer.

The Future Farmers of America is a national organization of boys studying vocational agriculture in the nation's high schools. The local chapter serves to create interest in agriculture and gives the farm boys more confidence in themselves and their work. P. Heepke, L. Greear, P. Bivens, J. Burk, and L. Metz are the officers.

The Council is a representative body consisting of one representative from each home room. Its responsibility is to plan school projects, assemblies, social functions, to supervise elections, etc. The officers are P. Heepke, J. Wayne, N. Cox, L. Wheat.

The Library Club is composed of all the Library staff and those students who are interested in the Library and its functions. New books are reviewed and judgment passed on them. Its officers are L. Lackey and M. Dippold.

"We build the ladder by which we rise" is the motto of the Hi Tri organization. The aim of the Hi-Tri is to create friendliness, courtesy, pleasure and success. The officers are L. Perry, J. Broderick, M. Thomas, M. Hennig.

The Maintenance and Photography Clubs are both new this year. The officers of the Maintenance Club are D. Hastings and L. Phillips. Those of the Photography Club are L. Perry, F. Atherton, and B. Schafer. Mr. Brock and Mr. Gibson sponsor these clubs.

The purpose of the Hi-Y is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character. E. Whilhold, J. Long, P. Heepke, and J. Kahmann are officers.

Plays, pantomimes, and radio forms of entertainment are the main strings of the Dramatics Club. This organization was brought about by a group of students who were interested in dramatics and wished to express their emotions. The officers are J. Neuhaus, D. Long, and G. Gerling.

The purpose of G. A. A. is to teach girls good sportsmanship and loyalty through athletics. The requirements for membership are physical education and one sport each semester. The officers are J. Wayne, N. Corrington, R. Hoffman, and D. Zimmerman.

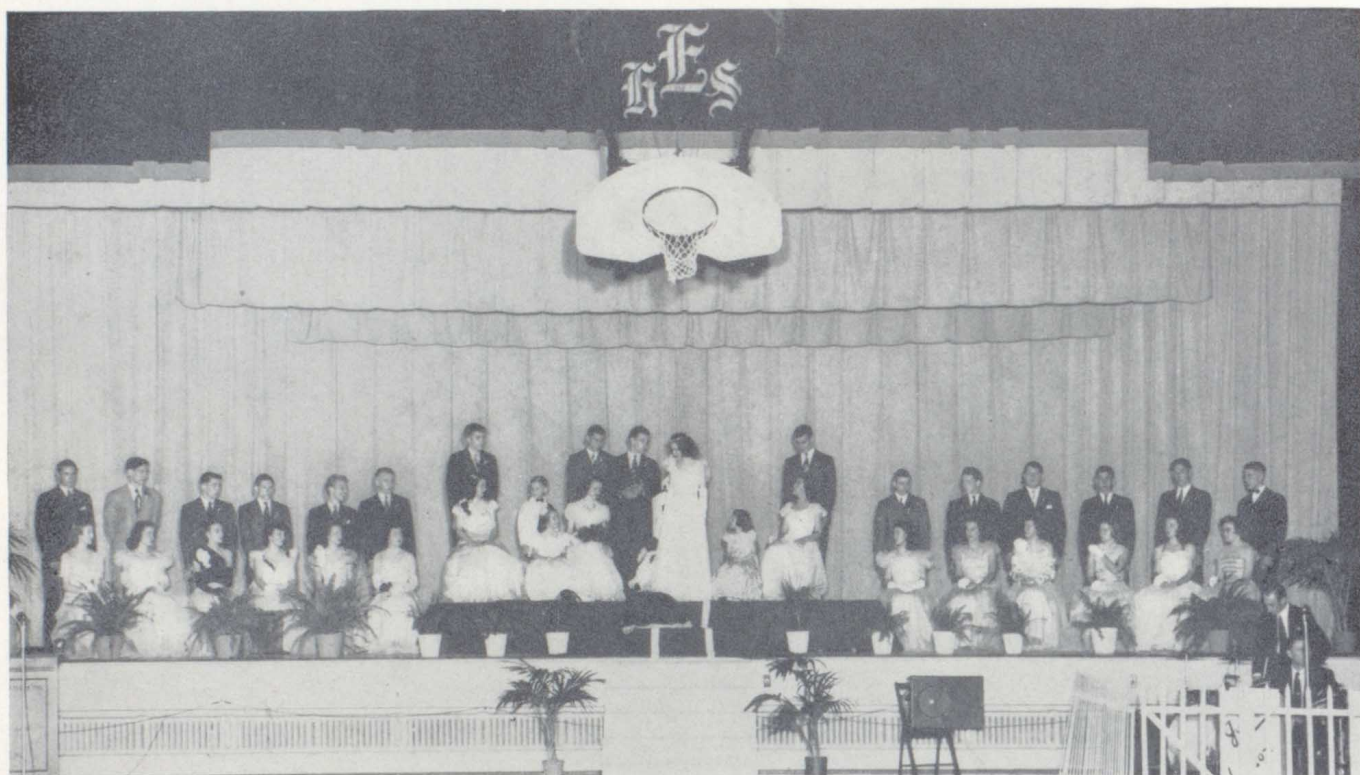

MISS LORETTA ARTH

Our Football Queen

Football Prom

The spotlight focused on our lovely queen, Miss Loretta Arth, on the evening of November 9, 1946. Miss Arth was escorted to the throne by Nelson Henry, where the retiring queen, Miss Virginia Engelke, escorted by Bob Geers, crowned Miss Arth, Football Queen of 1946.

Lettermen and Maids

Preceding the queen were the honorary maids, Miss Rae Lee Hoffman, escorted by Kenneth Trebing, and Miss Lillian Perry, escorted by Paul Heepke.

John Brock, crown bearer, Miss Marina Lucco and Miss Janet Fruit, train bearers, future students of EHS, completed the procession.

Music was provided by Johnny Harrison's orchestra, and the first dance was in honor of the queen and her maids.

Halloween Party

On October 31, a wide assortment of weird creatures, such as tombstones, a jack-in-the-box, a worm, and characters from the Wizard of Oz, were seen at the annual Halloween Party held in the high school gym.

The gym was decorated with corn shocks, pumpkins, and bales of hay, with an added attraction of paper witches and black cats.

There was dancing, and then the main event, the grand march. After the grand march, prizes were awarded to the most original costume, the best group, the best disguise, and many others.

Music was furnished by Walt Schlemmer's orchestra. Later in the evening, refreshments were served, and dancing was resumed. After a few dances, our annual Halloween Party came to a close.

Kid Party

At the annual Kid Party on February 10, in the gym, all the girls came "doe" (unescorted, that is!) and really cut loose. The costumes consisted of a little of everything. Some wore diapers and carried a baby bottle, some wore short dresses, and others wore blue jeans.

Many girls could be found skating, tripping, or slipping down the halls, and if they were not skating, they were dancing to the music of Joe Ladd's orchestra, and the familiar strains of "Open the Door, Richard," still echo throughout the building.

In accordance with the circus there, a program was presented in circus style, with Rae Lee Hoffman as ringmaster. The program consisted of a vocal solo by Iva Jean Irvin, juggling act by Virginia Wayne and Nancy Corrington, dog act by Margaret Atherton, Marilyn Warburton, Nina Whittenberg, and Agnes Jo Schwehr, tumbling act by Margaret Long, Mary Jean Gerke, and Judy Keltner, and a "lost dog" rendition by Sally Burroughs.

The party was sponsored by the Hi-Tri, under the supervision of Miss Elsie Sloan and Miss Lorraine Hatcher, and committees composed of the Hi-Tri Council.

After the program, there was a mad scramble to the food line, and so came the end of one of EHS's favorite parties.

Junior Play

"Brother Goose," a three-act comedy, was presented by the Junior Class on November 21, under the direction of Miss Alice Cheek.

The play centered around Jeff, an architect, who was having a difficult time trying to get started in his profession and caring for his two sisters and brother. When Peggy, a door-to-door hosiery saleslady, discussed his plight with him, he described himself as a sort of Mother Goose, where-upon she suggested that Brother Goose would be a better name.

Senior Play

"Don't Darken My Door," a modern melodrama, was presented by the Senior Class on May 9, under the direction of Miss Alice Cheek.

The play concerned Rosemary, who had acquired a lot of romantic ideas from reading the novels of Jane Perkins, and her maid, Poppy, who followed her ideas. They refused to have anything to do with Tom and Alec, the unromantic men in their lives.

An accident put Jane in the home of Rosemary's uncle, Roger, and Jane suggested a scheme to cure the girls of their silliness, in which two maiden ladies, Louisa and Susan, joined in.

It's an "E" formation if you can't tell.

Block that pass!

Now we will have a few words from our beautiful queen.

Just call me "Little Mother!"

Hey, Jules! Where ya' going?

Egad! What's that?

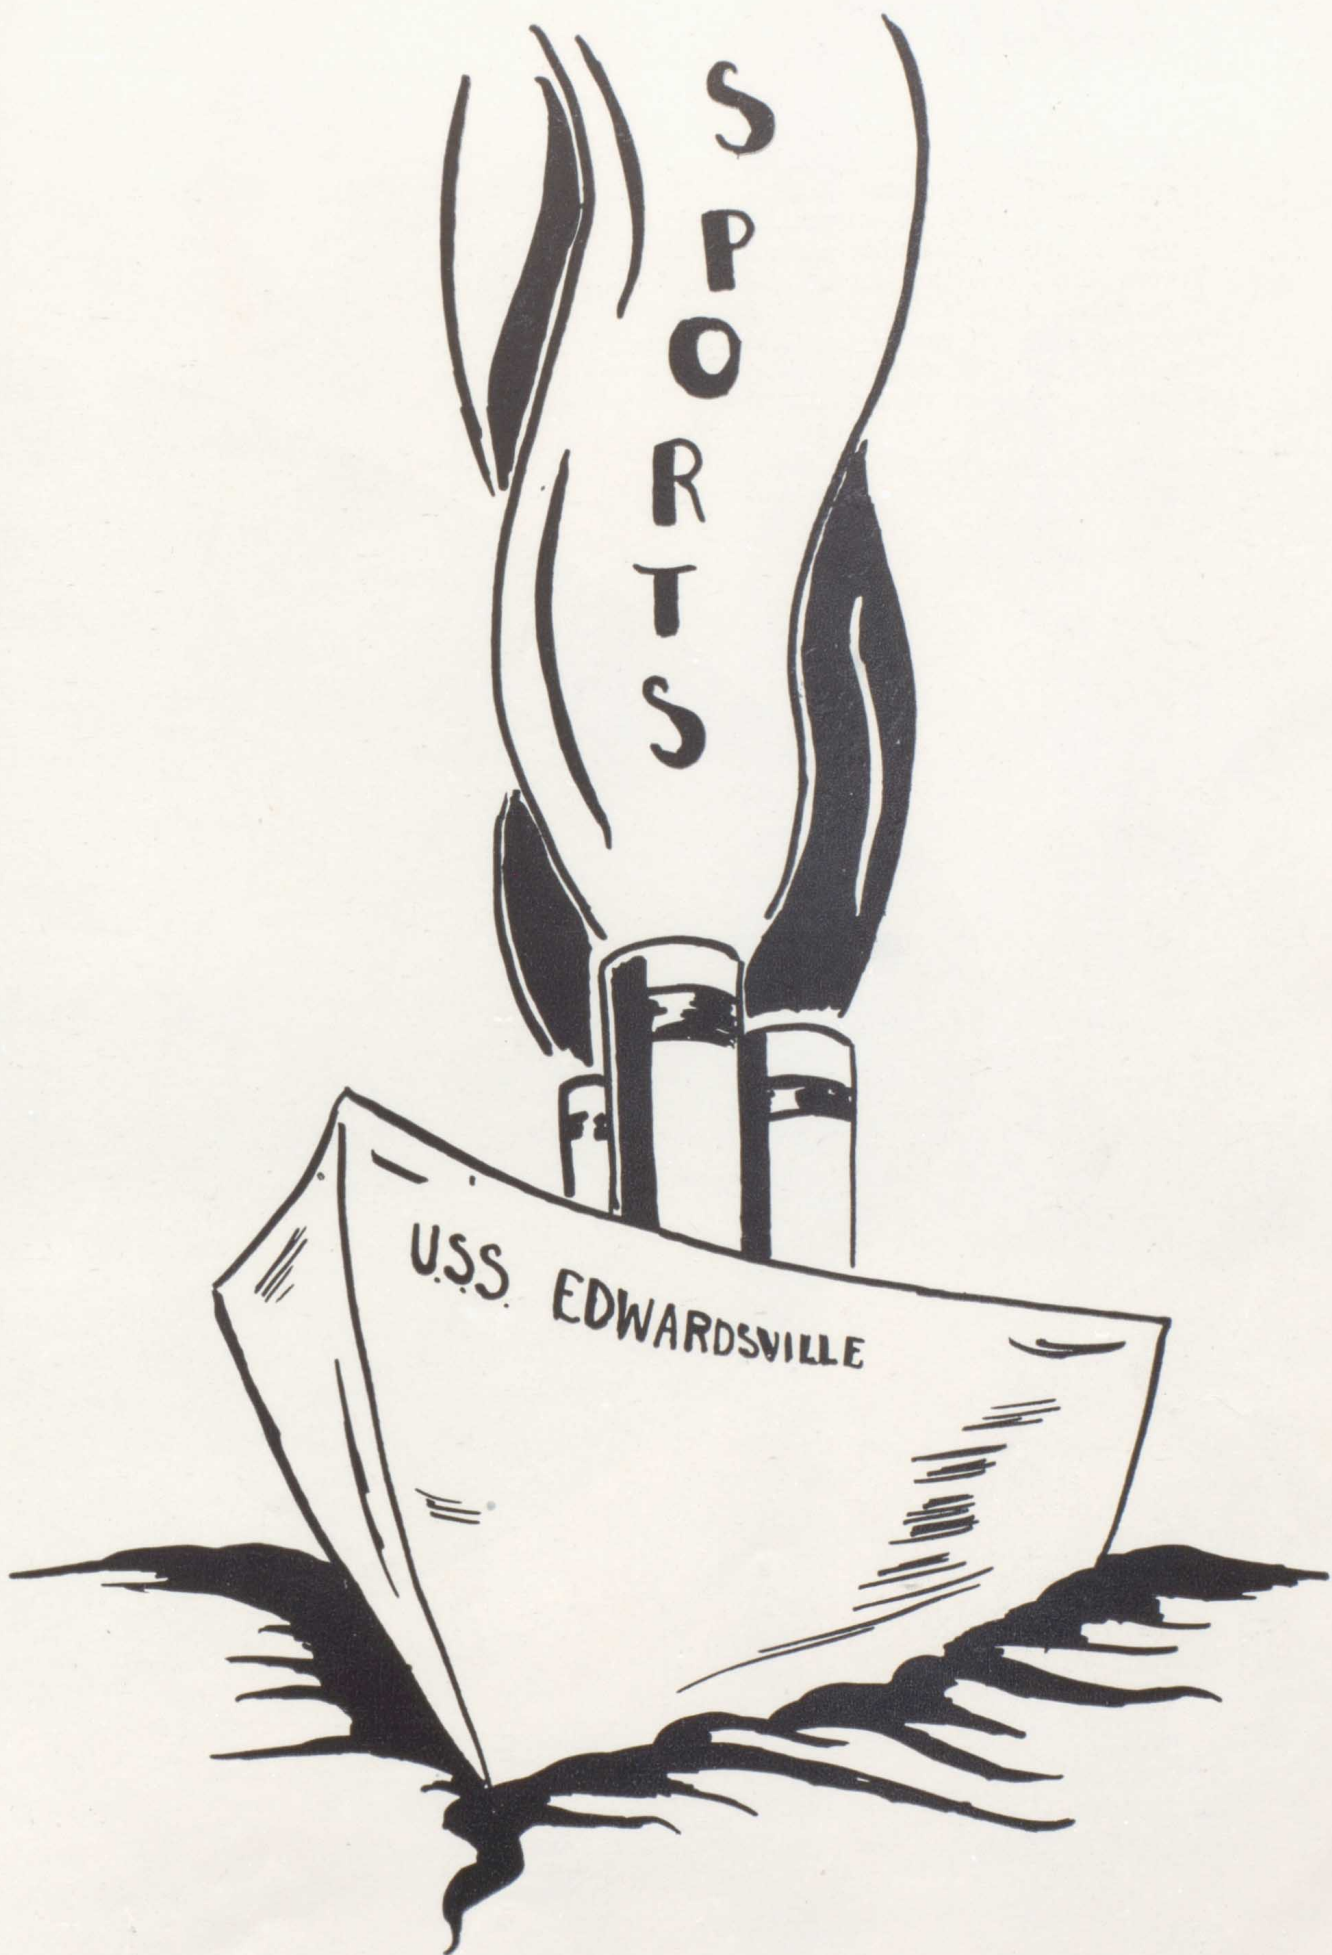

What the Tide Washed In!

Now, Charlie! You-all needn't be bashful with me.
Jim, where did you get the masked beauty?
Get off, you big lugs!

Football

In August the eyes of EHS turned to the forthcoming football season. Most followers expected one of the best football teams in years, but the boys missed Coach Gilbert and his style of playing. The boys tried to change to Mr. Strepek's single-wing, but they did not get the timing and blocking down as it should be. Although there were fourteen lettermen returning, only three were regulars last year. At times during the season the line looked like it was the best in the conference, but the passing defense was poor.

Next year the Tigers should have a good team with many of the boys returning with a year's experience under their hats. Let's hope that they come through with a successful season.

Track . . . Wrestling

The track squad of "46" did not fare too well because of the lack of distance runners, shotput, and discus men. The Tigers had several good sprinters and hurdlers, but the opponent gained ground on the distance and throwing events. EHS finished second in a tri-meet with Collinsville and Alton, but lost out in a dual-meet with Lebanon.

Wrestling was revived this year after a lapse of seven years. Mr. Gibson took over the coaching reins again. At first only a few of the boys came out, but gradually the squad built up to twelve boys. The team did not have any heavies; the heaviest man weighed only 160 pounds. Despite the fact that this was the first year for all of these boys, neither Granite City nor Belleville smothered them in dual meets.

Row 1: Weckman, Hoppe, Shaffer, Gray, Nauman, Whilhold, Henderson, Krupski, Yehling, Wehling, Ellis.
Row 2: Coach Gilbert, Kahmann, Eck, Kessel, Suess, Coolbaugh, Brown, Provaznik, House, Mgr. Geers.

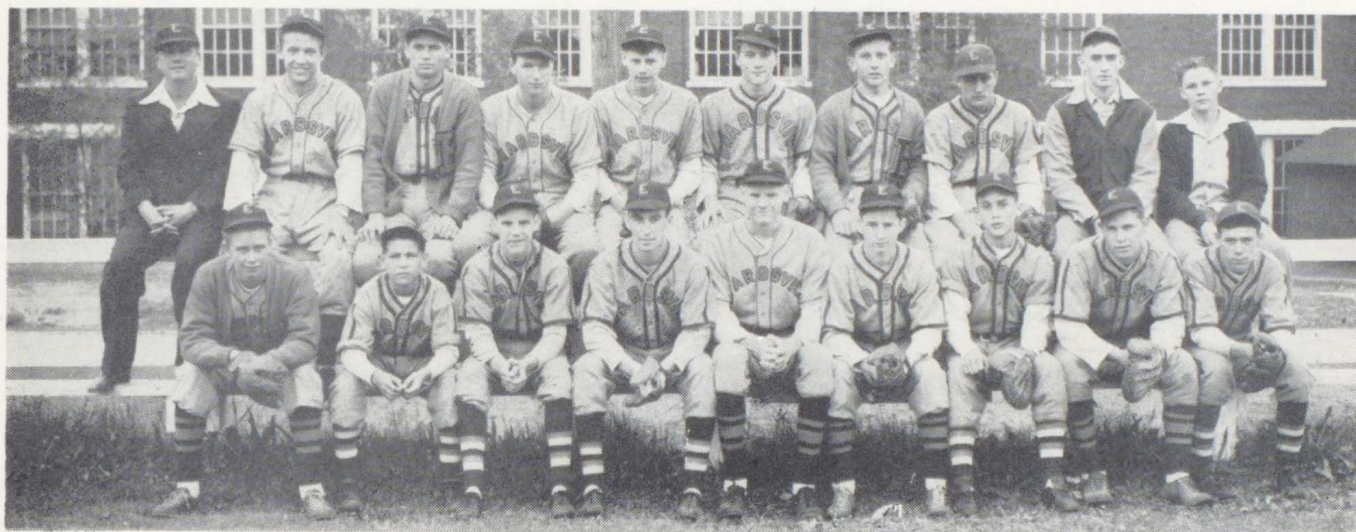

Row 1

Maynard, Lewis, Butcher, Mays, Strader, Fleming, Coach Gibson.

Row 2

Fravell, Trebing, Lance, Slowey, Provaznik, Smith, Dalhaus.

Baseball

Row 1: Werner Shipkowski, Jones, Whilhold, Wheat, Mayberry, Henke, Schlueter, Weiler
Row 2: Coach Lucco, Clawson, Jaros, Nealy, Hoffman, Kovarik, Henry, Kelly, Schaffer, Gardner.

EHS's 1946 baseball squad had a fairly successful season, winning fourteen games and losing three. They went as far as the finals for the second straight year in the Regional Tournament. Coach Lucco will have the same squad back this year with the exception of Clawson, Kovarik, and Nealy.

This is only the second year of baseball at EHS and both years have been very successful, as the school can boast of a two-year record of twenty-six wins against six losses. Last year was also the first year the Southwestern Conference had a full roster of teams for baseball, and it was Edwardsville's and Alton's inaugural into the baseball conference. The Tigers finished in a tie for third last year, but they will be battling for the conference and state titles in the years to come.

Officers' Mess

Whistle-bait.

The big three conference.

Just call me Freshie.

You shoulda' seen the one that got away.

The little King.

Get off that grass!

Two of our favorite teachers.

1-2-3 - - - - -

Happy and laughing girls.

Miss Gerke, not so much
H₂O.

Flotsam and Jetsam . . .

Hey! Have you seen Chuck? If I slip, Mr. Brock will catch me.

Through these portals pass—maybe. Lillian Cook. Fred Twente.

Hey, Red, quit following those girls. Don't we look tough? We're just chorus girls at heart.

Hold it!

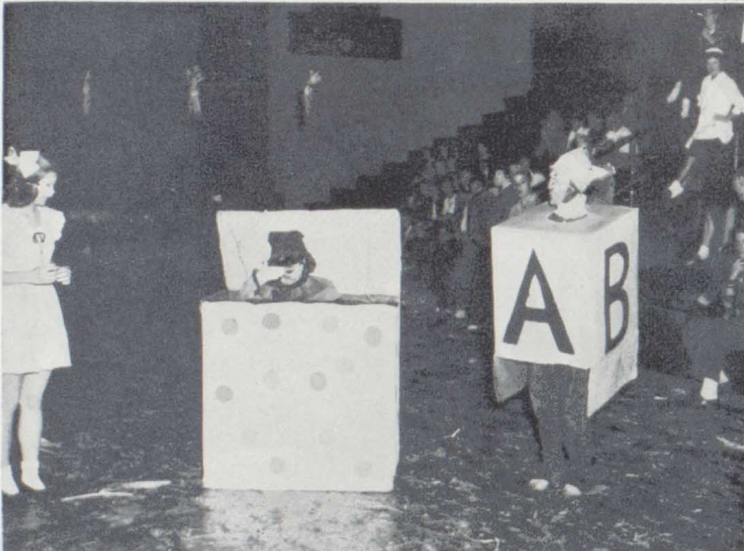

They must be monkeys, they're eating bananas.

Our brain factory.

Everett Butcher.

Can you read this sign?
We can't, either.

Polliwogs . . .

Ugh! Just made it.

Peek-a-boo!

Wal' it's jest like I said to Zeke thuther day—

The outgoing queen comes in.

Jules, quit wiggling! I'm falling off.

Senior Class Achievements . . .

It is our purpose that on this page we present a list of the achievements of the Senior Class, that the readers may realize that the four years spent by us in this school have not been wasted.

The number of our accomplishments are not many, but the quality of each of these achievements offsets any desire that we be promiscuous in the attainment of them.

The time has come to prepare a history; a list of achievements of the graduating class. It is customary, when writing these essays, to say in a very old and very trite way, that this class is "beyond doubt the greatest class ever to enter the portals of EHS."

In an effort to change this, partially, we won't claim to be the greatest class. Rather, we will present our record and let you be the judge as to how much claim to fame we have.

In our first year, the year when other classes are adjusting themselves to the accelerated tempo of the upper grades, we began to take the reins of leadership and forge ahead. We were marked from that first hectic week as a class to watch.

That first year, we quickly fitted ourselves into the fast moving program, and led the entire school in the sales of War Bonds and Stamps. Ours was the only class to have a home-room with 100 per cent average for buying stamps throughout the year.

We again led the school in the sale of War Bonds our second year. Two members of our class received letters in football. Baseball started and we placed four men on the team, although we were only Sophomores.

Our first year as upperclassmen earmarked us for greater things to come. We sponsored the most successful Junior-Senior Prom in six years. We exhibited our talent in the Junior play musical, "Marrying Marian." The moving force behind the organization of the Dramatic Club was ours, and it soon became one of the largest clubs in school.

Then came the time for us to be the oldest and most important class in school.

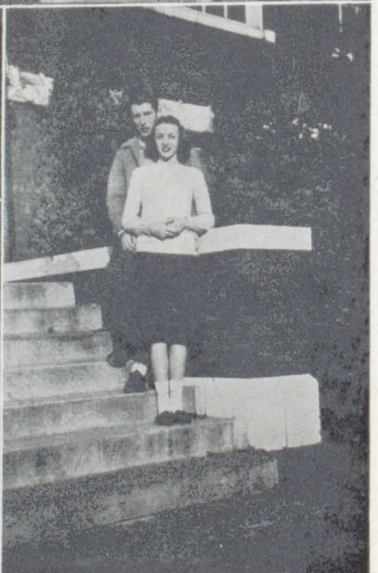

The first Tiger to contain individual pictures of the entire student body was of our making. It remained for us to put out the first entirely printed Tiger Times.

Members of our ranks were seen everywhere, doing everything. The Senior Class play, "Don't Darken My Door," was an even bigger hit than our effort of the year before.

Our class presented the school with a new intercommunication system.

With this myriad of evidence behind us, can you deny that we are, at least, one of the greatest classes?

The Tide Goes Out . . .

I'm sorry we haven't got
"Forever Amber."

Hey, Wayne, when do you take off?

Goo-Goo!!

K. P.

The birdies watch the camera.

Surprise!

"Spring is Sprung."

Glen's gang.

Good morning!

Cupid's work.

To Our Advertisers

To Edwardsville Students

Every merchant or professional man or name you see in this Tiger has helped to make it possible for us to produce the 1947 Tiger.

Without the fine cooperation of the business and professional men and women of Edwardsville all past and present Tigers would not have been possible. In fact, without their help this year you students would be paying almost again as much as you have paid for your copy of the Tiger.

Therefore, it is necessary for you to show these firms and friends the value of their advertising and help us to express our appreciation. Mention their ad in the Tiger; patronize them in every way you can.

And to Edwardsville High Boosters

Remember that the 1947 Tiger has again served you in presenting your valuable message to Edwardsville students and alumni.

Your advertising will be seen by over 600 families whose purchasing power is approximately $650,000, a vast market, whose resources you have wisely tapped.

Students and alumni will show you the current results, and because each Tiger lives and relives from year to year in hundreds of homes in Edwardsville and the Edwardsville area, your name will be seen a long time, a thoughtful reminder to come in and buy your merchandise or to employ your services.

A SYMBOL OF GOOD BANKING

STRANGERS AND NEW-COMERS refer to this bank as "The Bank on the Corner With the Clock," but to the old-timers, who are familiar with the history of this bank and this community, "Edwardsville National" is a symbol of good banking.

THE PAST 30 YEARS have been crowded with what would normally be a century of living:—two world wars; a great depression; deflation and inflation; major business and political changes; new social conditions.

SOUND POLICIES, as liberal as consistent with good banking, have guided this institution through all sorts of conditions.

CONSTANT THOUGHT is being given to the future of this bank for the safety, the welfare, and the betterment of our depositors and our community. We realize that the manner in which we conduct our business today directly affects the welfare of our depositors tomorrow, next month, next year, yes, in the next decade. Alert cooperation and up-to-the-minute facilities are provided.

This Is the Kind of Banking Service You Want.

We welcome your account,—whether it is large or small.

What's In A Name?

On making a purchase or receiving a gift, invariably the first thought is to look for the Trade Mark or the maker's name.

Very often the merit of the article is judged by the name thereon.

In Photography the A. H. Strebler Studio Signature is recognized as a mark of high quality and expert workmanship.

SPECIALIZED PLANNING AND ENGRAVING
SERVICE FOR YEARBOOK STAFFS

FAREWELL TO ALMA MATER!

After four short but eventful years we bid goodbye to our good ship "E. H. S.", which has brought us safely through the "calms" and many a stormy sea. All in all the voyage has been a pleasant and enjoyable one. Our skippers, Mr. Alexander, for four years, Mr. Wood for three, and Mr. Brock for our senior year have done everything to make our cruise through the Sea of Learning purposeful and worthwhile. We also owe our thanks to the officers and members of the crew, the deans and faculty, for their skillful and patient assistance.

As we prepare to disembark we will always retain fond and affectionate memories for our Alma Mater.
